

REGGIE STEELE

Reggie Steele, a Newark, NJ native, is emerging as one of New Jersey's premier house music producers. His energetic rhythmic grooves, coupled with his melodic chords, are shaping a fresh sound that house heads across the world are dancing to. Over the years he has collaborated with house music notables and emerging DJs. To date, you can hear his sound on records with Big Moses (Deep Inside), Jihad Muhammed and his chart-topping remixes (co-produced with DJ Beloved) for Terry Hunter (We Are One), Sheree Hicks (Come Get My Love), Nova Fronteira (Seasons), Sheba Jordan (Music is My Way of Life), Tasha LaRae (Find My Way), Miranda Nicole (Dance Like You've Been Here), Gwen Hunter (Turn Me On), Monifah Carter (One Moment) & Shane the Golden Voice (Destiny).

As a classically trained musician and vocalist, his attention to detail and ability to deliver what an artist desires has labeled him as the "go to guy" for DJs and vocalists alike.

While Reggie still collaborates with a number of fellow artists & DJs, he has decided to venture out and carve a lane of his own within the house music industry. There's a new sound that's about to hit the house music scene. Look out new music from the Steele Records roster of artists at the top of the year!
